School	Department	Program	Admission quota		Etc.
			Regular	International*
Graduate School of Business	MBA	MBA	100	not predetermined
Total			100	–

* The quota for international admissions is not predetermined. For international admission, we will select students only if there are applicants with sufficient academic ability.

* The number of applicants and the competition rate will not be disclosed.

2 Eligibility

A. Regular Admissions

- 1) Applicants who have obtained a bachelor's degree from domestic or international institutions [including those who are scheduled to graduate by August 2025 (September for graduates of foreign universities)] or Applicants recognized as having academic qualifications equivalent to or higher than a bachelor's degree according to relevant laws.
- 2) Applicants falling under 1) who have achieved a certain minimum score in English proficiency.
 - a) Required English Scores

Program	TEPS (New)	TOEFL iBT	TOEIC	IELTS (Academic)
MBA	322 or higher	94 or higher	825 or higher	6.5 or higher

- ※ Official test scores taken within two years of the application deadline [March 14, 2025 (Friday)] and whose results have been announced by that date, as indicated on the application form, will be accepted (including TOEFL MyBest Scores* and Home Edition scores)(Scores or grades announced after the application deadline will not be accepted.)
- ※ If you wish to submit MyBest Scores for TOEFL, the validity period (2 years) will be calculated based on the test date of the earliest section among the 4 sections, using the application deadline [March 14, 2025 (Friday)] as the reference date.

[Examples]: In the case where scores were obtained as follows, the test date for the Writing Section (the earliest among the 4 sections) on November 10, 2019, will be considered, and the validity period (2 years) will be calculated based on this date.

- ※ In the case of hearing impairment (severe disability, former grades 2–3), the scores other than listening scores (240 points) will be converted to a total score (600 points) according to the Revised TEPS standards.
- b) Graduates (or scheduled graduates) from universities (or colleges) located in English-speaking countries are exempt from submitting English proficiency scores
 - ※ "English-speaking countries" refer to nations where English is the native language or an official language by law, and this excludes universities (or colleges) located in South Korea. English language courses at non-English-speaking universities are not exempted.
- c) Special TEPS Test (Cannot be used for purposes other than the admission process for the 2025 Seoul National University Full-Time MBA program)
 - Applicants who do not have the required minimum English proficiency scores mentioned in 2) above are eligible to apply if they take the Special TEPS Test, which will be held by Seoul National University Language Education Institute on March 6, 2025 (Thursday).
 - Applicants who do not meet the minimum score criteria based on the Special TEPS Test will be disqualified.
 - Special TEPS Test Applicants: Complete the application submission from February 28, 2025 (Friday) at 10:00 AM to March 3, 2025 (Monday) by 5:00 PM

Apostille Agreement for Certification of Academic Documents

✦ Apostille Agreement

An international agreement among member countries aimed at simplifying the mutual authentication of public documents, eliminating the need for complex authentication processes like embassy verification, and instead relying on the document-issuing country to confirm (legalize) the documents

- Name: Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalization for Foreign Public Document
- Information on Apostille-related authorities by country: www.hcch.net – Members & Parties – HCCH Members for reference
- Korean university graduates are exempt from this requirement and should submit original academic transcripts and degree certificates

1. Admitted Students from Apostille Member Countries

- Required Documents: 1) Academic Transcript, 2) Proof of Highest Education (Graduation Certificate or Degree Certificate)(Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates.)
- Where to issue: The designated authority in the respective country (in the case of Korea, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs)
 - ※ Information on Apostille-related authorities by country is available at (<https://www.hcch.net/>) – Apostille Section
- How to Submit: Obtain an "Apostille Confirmation Certificate" for the mentioned documents from the designated authority in your country and submit it within the specified timeframe (in person or by mail)
[Note] The Apostille Verification Certificate can be substituted with consular authentication by the Korean Embassy or Consulate in the respective country

2. Admitted Students from Non-Apostille Member Countries

- Required Documents: 1) Academic Transcript, 2) Proof of Highest Education (Graduation Certificate or Degree Certificate)(Applicants who have completed their academic program from universities in China should also include degree certificates.)
- Where to issue: The Korean embassy or consulate in the country where the graduated school is located
- How to Submit: Obtain confirmation by the Korean Embassy or Consulate in the jurisdiction of the country where the school is located and submit them within the specified period (in person or by mail)

3. Important Notes

- Documents not originally written in Korean or English must be accompanied by a notarized Korean or English translation, along with the original documents
- Original documents obtained with Apostille/Consular authentication must be submitted as is.
 - ※ Copies of the original with Apostille/Consular authentication will not be accepted.)
